

In the world of casino games, speed and strategy often go hand in hand — and Three Card Rummy is where they meet in perfect harmony! The cards are shuffled, the bets are placed, and with a flick of the dealer’s hand, your fate is revealed in just three cards.

But in this game, it’s not about high hands or royal flushes — it’s about keeping your score low. The goal? Outscore the dealer by scoring less. Twos through tens count as face value, face cards are worth ten, and aces only one. But here’s the twist: pairs, triples, and suited runs? They’re worth zero. In a game where less is more, zero is gold.

Every round begins with a choice — place your Ante and, if you dare, a Bonus Bet. The cards are dealt — three face-up for you, three mystery cards for the dealer. You scan your hand, calculate your score, and make the call: Fold and walk away, or Raise and face the challenge head-on.

If the dealer qualifies — meaning their hand totals 20 or fewer — it’s a straight-up showdown. If your score is lower, you win. If not, you lose. And if you’re lucky enough to hit a rare hand on your Bonus Bet? That’s where the magic really happens.

Three Card Rummy is quick, clever, and full of unexpected turns. It’s a game where being low puts you on top — and every hand is a chance to outsmart the dealer with nothing more than three simple cards.
