

Triple Strike Poker is a fast-paced, three-card poker game that combines simplicity, excitement, and big winning potential. Played with a single deck, each hand consists of just three cards, making it easy to learn and quick to play — perfect for both beginners and experienced players. What makes this game even more thrilling is that it offers two ways to win: beat the dealer in the main game or land a strong hand with the Pair Plus side bet for instant payouts.

You’re dealt three face-up cards while the dealer receives three face-down cards. After checking your hand, you choose whether to Call and continue or Fold and forfeit your Ante.

If the dealer qualifies with a Queen or higher and your hand is stronger, both your Ante and Call bets pay even money. If the dealer doesn’t qualify, your Ante pays out automatically and your Call bet is returned.

The Pair Plus bet pays based on your hand alone, regardless of the dealer’s cards. Winning hands include Straight Flush, Three of a Kind, and Straight, with payouts up to 40 to 1. Hands are ranked from highest to lowest as Straight Flush, Three of a Kind, Straight, Flush, and Pair. In case of matching ranks, the highest card — known as the kicker — determines the winner.

With simple betting options, fast rounds, and rewarding payouts, Triple Strike Poker delivers nonstop excitement. Whether you’re aiming to beat the dealer or chasing big wins through Pair Plus, every hand gives you a fresh shot at victory.
